

DOMBI, DALMA, University of Pannonia Kőszeg Campus

Dalma Martina Dombi was born on the 24th of February 1989 in Budapest.

She has lived in Austria since 1992.

She has pursued Master Studies in International Relations at the University of Pannonia Kőszeg Campus.

Ms. Dombi graduated with an American Diploma from the American International School of Vienna.

Afterwards she decided to study at the Western Hungarian University in Szombathely.

She graduated in 2012 with a Bachelor Diploma in International Relations.

She continued her studies at the Andrássy University in Budapest at the Faculty of Master in International Relations. During this time, she also did an Internship for her current workplace Diakonie Flüchtlingsdienst GmbH which is a civil organisation in contract with the Austrian Government.

Since February 2016, she has worked for the Organization.