

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES 2016/2017 Fall Semester

WEEK	INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
Week 1: 12-16 September	Registration week, Hungarian language lesson, Introduction to the Global Conversation (online course)
Week 2: 19-23 September	Jody Jensen Global Transformations: States, Markets, Societies
Week 3: 26-30 September	Attila Pók Patterns of Collective and Individual Behaviour in Hitler's and Stalin's Europe
Week 4: 3-7 October	Tibor Palánkai The Economics of European Integration with a Special Focus on East and Central Europe
Week 5: 10-14 October	Gábor Kardos International Minority Protection: Conflicts and Guarantees
Week 6: 17-21 October	Mónika Mátay Jews, Lepers, Prostitutes and Other Outcasts: Discrimination and Integration in European Urban Space
Week 7: 24-28 October	Stuart Holland Meaning and Method in Social Analysis
Week 8: 31-4 November	research week
Week 9: 7-11 November	James M. Skelly Information technology and New Subjectives
Week 10: 14-18 November	Dimitar Nikolovski Political Dynamics in the Balkans (South-East Europe)
Week 11: 21-25 November	Ahmet Evin EU-Turkey Relations
Week 12: 28-2 December	Ferenc Miszlivetz Europe between Globality and Locality
Week 13: 5-9 December	Kerekes Sándor Environmental Economics
Week 14: 12-16 December	György Csepeli Intercultural Communication

