

VARDANYAN, GOHAR, iASK

Gohar Vardanyan has a background in art history and holds joint BA and MA degree from History and Theory of Visual Arts department of Yerevan State Academy of Fine Arts. From 2010-2016 she worked in the same academy as a lecturer of Modern and Contemporary Art History. From 2015-2016 she taught the same discipline in the National University of Architecture and Construction in Armenia and in the Medialab project of Focus NGO (Armenia). In 2013-2014 she was a visiting fellow in Art History department at Tufts University, Boston, US. After returning to Armenia she started actively collaborate with art NGOs and organize Contemporary art workshops and exhibitions. She had participated in various conferences in US, Europe and Armenia.