

Tamás FEJÉRDY

Budapest, Hungary, architect

From 1976 until the end of 2012 he worked in the central state-organization for monuments preservation in Hungary.

1970 Masters degree in Architecture (University of Technology Budapest)

1981 conservator of Historic Monuments.

University Doctor 1984, doctor of Liberal Arts (University of Pécs, Hungary 2009).

Honorary Senior Lecturer at Budapest Technical University.

ICOMOS Member since 1983;

ICOMOS Vice-President (2005-2008);

Honorary Member (2008).

Participant of Nara International Conferences in 1994 and 2004.

Chairperson of UNESCO's World Heritage Committee 2002-2003.